MARKETING/ADVERTISING OBJECTIVES

The advertising objectives as outlined in the Strategic Marketing Plan for Tourism (Government of the Northwest Territories) April 1986, are as follows:

1. To create optimum levels of awareness, image, interest, positive attitudes/perceptions , and motivations within the U.S. market to provide maximum benefits to the private sector in the Northwest Territories.
2. To work with partners to increase the number of U.S. tourists and travel receipts.
3. To generate high quality leads.
4. To achieve exposure in the Canadian market place.

MEDIA STRATEGY

Role of Advertising

In adhering to the Government of the Northwest Territories mandate to facilitate and promote the healthy development and prosperity of the tourism industry, the role of advertising is to communicate effectively, TravelArctic's message. To achieve this objective, the advertising must:

- generate and maintain awareness
- generate a positive image
- help to increase visitations
- help to increase travel receipts during visitations

Target Group Definition

The Outdoors/Adventure Category encompasses three distinctive target groups.

- a) Sportsfishing - Males 35-54 years who are avid sportsfishing enthusiasts, who fish often as a lifestyle and are constantly looking for new environments and challenges.
- b) Outdoors/Adventure/Culture/Touring - Adults 24-54 (Males 70%, Females 30%) who are lovers of nature and the outdoor environment, looking for unique destinations and experiences.
- c) Sporthunting - Males 35-54. There is little research defining this target audience. Field & Stream, through Beta Research, conducted a study for their Trophy Edition. It was found that while hunting is a hobby started early in life, with father and son, the big game hunting is confined to Males 35-54, HHI $50M+, with some college education: who hunt often as a lifestyle and are constantly looking for unique environments and challenges.

The above demographics with exception of Sporthunting, are based on the Study conducted by Briar International Business Resources Limited, titled "A Strategic Marketing Plan for Tourism For the Government of the Northwest Territories, 1986".

Geographic Coverage

The launch campaign will concentrate in the United States with emphasis on geographical regions of greatest potential for Spothunting Sportsfishing and Outdoors/Adventure/Culture/Touring. These regions are the Mid-Atlantic, E.N. Central, W.N. Central, Pacific and New England (Source: Briar International 1986, and Us. Pleasure Travel Study, 1986). Some support will be provided in Canada, through exposure to U.S. Advertising.

Timing/Duration

Due to the late start it is imperative that the market entry time frame be collapsed as much as possible. Therefore, it is recommended that the launch campaign be scheduled between December 1987 and March 31, 1988.

Weight Levels

In order to achieve TravelArctic's goals, Camp recommends that frequency of message not be sacrificed for extensive reach. At the launch stage of the campaign it is better to reach a smaller group effectively than spread the message ineffectively over a larger group. Therefore a maximum of 70% reach of the target group has been determined in the media objectives.

Given the time frame, the message should be received at a minimum of 10 occasions by the Sportsfishing target group.

For the Outdoors/Adventure group, it is recommended that a minimum frequency of 3 exposures will be effective for the launch.

For the Spothunting Group, it is recommended that a minimum frequency of three exposures will be effective for the launch.

Media Selection

Adhering to the Government of the Northwest Territories mandate to achieve the advertising objectives, the media selected will be required to meet a list of criteria. These criteria are:

- good target group coverage
- cost efficiency and effectiveness
- compatible with creative message
- to have geographical flexibility
- to have the ability to create a credible environment
- ability to generate responses

MEDIA RATIONALE

The Government of the Northwest Territories mandate is to facilitate and promote the healthy development and prosperity of the tourism industry. In keeping with the mandate, the following media are recommended to create optimum levels of awareness, image and positive attitudes/perceptions.

1. SPORTSFISHING

A media mix of national television and magazines are recommended as the most effective vehicles to reach the target audience in the shortest period of time.

A) TELEVISION

Two of the highest rated U.S. fishing programmed have been selected to communicate TravelArctic's message to this specialized target audience.

- 1) In-Fisherman's Al Lindner Specials
- 2) Jerry McKinnis' Fishing Hole.

The two personalities are leading authorities in the U.S. on fishing and fishing locales and have established a strong credibility over the years.

Participation in the programmed open many avenues of promotional opportunities for both TravelArctic and partners to receive tremendous exposure. Promotional opportunities will be discussed more thoroughly in Co-op Opportunities (please see Exhibit I). The fishing programmed will be carried on over 125 non cable stations and on all cable TV Networks in the United States, reaching an audience of well over two million sportsfishing enthusiasts.

MEDIA RATIONALE

B) MAGAZINES

To provide added impact against the target, an Eight Page Four Colour insert is planned for Angling Adventures, to be followed by a Four Page, Four Colour insert in the In-Fisherman publication.

Impact against the target audience will be further maximized through the use of Double Page Four Colour Bleed spreads in Fly Fisherman and Natural History.

These publications have been selected for their ability to draw responses from action driven advertising. The audience of these publications are achievers, active in community affairs and have a great propensity to travel. (Source: SMRB 1986, Subscriber Studies) .

2. SPORTHUNTING
Magazines

A Full Page Black and White advertisement is being scheduled in a regional edition of Field and Stream to launch a Sportshunting programme, consisting of advertisements planned for 1988/89, and culminating with an exclusive Hunting Guide to the Northwest Territories. The Hunting Guide will be published in September 1989.

Shooting Sports Retailer, the voice of the manufacturing and product distribution industry is recommended to launch the marketing program with a prime consecutive position (front cover, pages 2 & 3) preceding the Shot Show in January 1988. During the Shot Show, a spread will be featured in the Shooting Sports Retailer.

To maximize impact against a prequalified audience, publications reaching the elite of big game hunter's are recommended. The publications provide in-depth coverage of the hunting sport as well as an excellent forum for TravelArctic to launch the hunting marketing program. Magazines selected are Safari, Petersen's Hunting, Field & Stream Trophy Edition, American Hunter and North American Hunter. All magazine advertisements will be coded to determine origination of responses for tracking purposes.

3. OUTDOORS/ADVENTURE/CULTURE/TOURING

Magazines

The target group for Outdoor s/Adventure /Culture /Touring are heavy magazine readers according to SMRB 1986 (see Exhibit II). In addition, those people who have the potential to travel to Canada are also heavy magazine readers. Therefore magazines are recommended as the key vehicle to reach this audience.

Magazines with very defined audiences allow TravelArctic to reach their desired target with little or no wastage."

Travel magazines in particular have a favorable editorial environment and according to the U.S. Pleasure Travel Study are important sources of information when planning for travel. (see Exhibit III)

Through the use of spectacular images and informative copy, TravelArctic's message will effectively reach the primary target audience in the following publications:

Travel & Leisure
Travel Holiday
Outside Magazine
Sunset
Smithsonian
Audubon World

In addition to reaching the primary target audience, the magazines selected will also reach the very important seniorcitizens' market.

During the launch year, the Canadian market will receive some coverage from selected U.S. magazines through spillover exposure.

Marketing Objectives: Such as 1) to reduce travel deficit. . .
2) to sell 150 Icon...

Marketing Strategy: To implement a number of projects such as public relations, put on seminars, advertise, . . . especially for current users or potential travelers who now travel elsewhere; therefore, increasing our share.. .

Advertising Objectives: To generate awareness of the destination. . . or . . . to educate current users of added value . . . or . . . to change the attitude of the general public toward the use of nuclear power as an energy alternative ..

Target Audience: Primary Audience: age, sex, education, income . . . Is this based on the client's knowledge or outside research source? Is there a secondary audience and how important are they? Are lifestyle characteristics important?

Market/Product/Service Data: Is travel (or sales) up or down from year previous. Is it a long term attitude change faced with other contradictions? How big a voice does the alternate attitude have? Is the product or trip purchased regularly or only once? Indicate time and location of purchase . . . Give promotional details if available. Is the product or idea new?

Seasonality/Regionality: English/French; year round vs. summer only . . .; quarterly objectives; urban vs. rural distribution or sales . . .

Creative Considerations: State likely creative units if known or suggest if discussion with creative team is appropriate. Is creative new or established. When will creative/production be ready?

Timing: Start date, end date. Any time the client does not want to be advertising or any time it is most important to be advertising.

Other Considerations: Is advertising allowed in all places or media vehicles (ie) beer and wine regulations; or has CTV but not CBC approval? Is client trying to develop an environment for his product (ie) developing awareness of market first and then product second (like moderation first and Labatt's as a sponsor second) or is it product development in an established market (like GNWT pushing the fishing and hunting of their area to people who are already anglers and hunters) ?

TravelArctic
FY 1987/1988 - TRAVEL TRADE
MEDIA PLAN

MEDIA RATIONALE

The Government of the Northwest Territories mandate is to facilitate and promote the healthy development and prosperity of the tourism industry. To complement GWNT's mandate, the following media are recommended to create optimum levels of awareness, image and positive perceptions, of the Northwest Territories as would class destination.

Magazines

A selection of leading U.S. National and Regional Travel Trade publications, featuring editorial directed to specific travel trade target groups, have been recommended. We will endeavour, when possible, to schedule advertisements in issues featuring Canadian editorial.

Advertisements scheduled on a co-ordinated flight basis will generate high awareness and provide a constant presence in the market place.

Travel Weekly, combined with Travel Agent, will provide the base of the campaign to achieve instant reach of the target audience. As an added incentive, a Business Reply Card will be scheduled with the Full Page insertions to generate response.

The regional edition, Travel Age West has been recommended to provide added impact in the Pacific Region. While the two leading publications have coverage in the Pacific Region, the concentration of circulation is in the Eastern Seaboard, S. Atlantic, E.N. Central and W.N. Central (See Exhibit I).

ASTA Agency Management and Tour and Travel News will extend the reach of the target audience and increase the frequency of TravelArctic's message.
